LOG LINES

October, 2009

October is upon us. Many people are going off to Congress—either to show or watch others. Good luck to all the participants.

Several members came home with new horses from Rita Crundwell's sale this year. Beth Manion bought a 2 year old gelding sired by NI Fabulous called NI Scorchin. The horse had been in training with Kelly Jadin earlier this year. Chayna DeNicolo came home with a 2 year old that been in training with Ken & Marcia Freeman. Watch for her in the future in the hunter under saddle classes on NI Naturallyfabulous. Kelly & Makayla Maciejewski bought 2 new horses at the sale. One was a yearling while the other was a 2 year old. The Crundwell facility in Dixon was gorgeous.

Get well wishes for Chayna DeNicolo who was kicked in the face in an unfortunate accident. She had some recovery time at home before she's back in the saddle, but I've seen her out there with her new 2 year old hunter under saddle horse.

LLQHA members came home with a lot of new belt buckles in Trail at the Region 3 Experience!!

Booker Dee Scotch and Daniele Luetke were 13 and under Youth Trail Champion Chex Your Destiny and Millie Mauritzson were the Select and Senior Trail Champions and Dazzling After Dark and Keri Collins were Amateur Trail Champions!! Daniele and Booker were also the Circuit Champions at Cap Gun in the Novice Youth Trail

Kayla Reda and Luken for the Blue aka Murray were named World Champion Youth HUS at the NSBA World show in August at Tulsa, OK. It was pretty exciting.

Congratulations to Millie Mauritzson & Chex Your Destiny on being the select amateur all around at the LLQHA shows in Sept. Also congratulations to Lauren Fassler & Tampa Bay Buccaneer for being the amateur all around at those shows. Joan Sellberg & Simply a Hustler picked up points in select trail, showmanship and horsemanship by winning classes on Sunday at that show. Beth Manion & Don't BSB Me won select HUS on Sunday. Lauren Stepaniak & Native Iron won amateur horsemanship classes. Cori Flowers & Donovans Legend won novice youth showmanship and horsemanship classes. Jim Steinman & Tru Valentine were reserve amateur mare on Saturday. I believe I heard that Gail Schroeder & Big Bay Investment finished their superior in performance geldings that weekend. Ed Meyer & Mr Te Invitation picked up points in select western pleasure. Millie Mauritzson picked up points in select horsemanship & trail by winning classes on Saturday. I picked up points in showmanship with my 2 year old filly, So Simply Designed, that weekend. And went reserve champion amateur mare under one judge! Makayla Maciejewski & Dee Country Investor won youth equitation and were grand youth gelding. Her sister, Madison, showed in some walk trot classes and youth gelding classes.

LeaAnn Koch's gelding Dr. Cool Cash and her mare HK Kids Playmate are doing well in the national standings. They both went grand at shows in DuQuoin and Gordyville in September. She was 5th with her gelding and 7th with her mare at the Select World show recently.

BOARD MEETING

July 28, 2009

The meeting was called to order at 7:40 p.m. at LeaAnn's home. Present were: Cheryl LaMaster, LeaAnn Koch, Ed Lawrence, Luann Meyer, Ashley Trousdale, Rich Smith, and Bob Lee. Minutes from the January meeting were approved. A treasurer's report was presented and approved as presented. Cheryl re-presented the financial report for 2008 that had previously been presented at the January meeting. Thanks to LeaAnn Koch for providing food for the meeting.

SHOWS: The Run for the Border shows made a small profit, less than $1000. Rita Crundwell and Meri-J Ranch made a donation to the show that helped with expenses. Some ideas for next year were discussed. Circuit awards were mentioned as a popular item with exhibitors. LeaAnn thought we should be able to obtain some sponsorships for things like the circuit awards. Added money to some classes was also discussed. One idea was to have $500 added in the senior pleasure on the last day—money going to amateur and youth riders who belong to LLQHA. Money could also be added to senior HUS on the Saturday show—money going to amateur and youth riders to belong to IQHA. The clubs would probably pick up some memberships with such ideas as well as increase entries in the classes. No final decisions were made but some of the ideas were popular. Wisconsin approval for the shows in 2009 was turned down but a letter will be written enquiring about approval for 2010.

The Silver Dollar shows in September in Wisconsin had asked for our approval for 2009. Our past policy has been to not approve other shows on the dates of our own club run shows. In keeping with this policy, the approval was denied.

NOVICE SHOWS: Possible locations and dates for northern novice shows in 2010 were discussed. Fox Valley has run some introductory shows and special events in 2009. Possibly LLQHA could connect with one of those shows for 2010.

NEW BUSINESS: Ed Lawrence asked several questions about the show software currently being used. He was interested to know if the program could be used for open shows.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl LaMaster,
Sec/Treas.

Horsemen's Council of Illinois presents Chicagoland Equestrian Lifestyle Expo & Holiday Market

2nd annual all-breed, multi-discipline educational & shopping event November 21-22, 2009, at the NEW Lake County Fairgrounds' Expo Center Grayslake (Chicago), Illinois
Saturday: 10 a.m. - 7 p.m. Sunday: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

The new Lake County Fairgrounds is at the intersection of Peterson and Midlothian Roads (1/2 mile west of US 45 and 1/2 mile east of IL 83)

Selecting and keeping a good farrier:

Questions you might ask:

- How long have you been in business?
- Do you perform corrective shoeing?
- Do you make your own shoes?
- Are you certified?
- How long was your training?
- Would you explain your pricing?

Take note of the way your farrier treats your horse. Stay on a schedule so the farrier can catch anything that goes wrong with your horse's feet or so he can continue to correct the feet. (information reprinted from America's Horse Weekly online)

A note from Chayna DeNicolo:

Horse people are some of the most down to earth wonderful people in the world and when tragedy happens they know how to band together and be there for those who need help. I want to give a big thank you to everyone who has thought about and prayed for my family and me. I also would like to thank everybody for their generosity at the last Gordyville show. I truly appreciate it, I am so blessed to be alive and here. It feels good to be back in the saddle and showing again.

Thank you all.....

Sincerely,

Chayna DeNicolo
